"Global" and "One Country" Inter-rail passes 2018

If you are planning to Inter-rail in several countries, a Global Pass may be your most flexible option, allowing you to travel in up to 30 participating countries. Some trains require seat (or couchette or sleeper) reservations, which we can book for you in advance if your plans are fixed; or along the way if you have no firm itinerary. Up to 2 children aged 4-11 travel free with each paying adult; infants travel free of charge. Prices at time of booking may vary because of exchange rates £ vs €

Inter-rail Global passes cannot be used in your country of residence, except that, now, one journey in each direction between your home station and your airport or port of departure, including London St. Pancras International, can be made, as long as these journeys are within the overall validity of your Inter-rail "Global" pass.

Planning to Inter-rail in one country? Or maybe a few single countries? Then the Inter-rail One Country Pass may be best for you. All are valid for one month, and you choose the number of days' travel you want - 3, 4, 6 or 8 - and not necessarily consecutive - you endorse the date on the pass before you commence the day's travel. You must have been resident in Europe for 6 months before you go, and you cannot buy a pass for the country you live in. Otherwise, Europe is all yours! Children 4 - 11 pay 50%
